HUNTINGTON , WV AREA STUDENTS TO PARTICIPATE IN IMPORTANT LEADERSHIP SUMMIT

Miranda I Coplin, Christiaan M Prince and Rafael A. Coplin; students at Saint Joseph Catholic School and Saint Joseph Catholic High School, will travel to Harvard University, Cambridge, MA, to participate in a People to People Leadership Summit. Miranda, Rafael and Christiaan, along with fellow students from around the world, will take part in Learning what it takes to be a leader—and experience college life—at Harvard University, the oldest institution of higher learning in the United States and a top-ranked Ivy League university.

During the 7 day program in Harvard University, Cambridge, MA; They will have the opportunity to learn about effective leadership and how to develop own leadership abilities, as well as how to apply those skills upon returning home. Hands-on activities such as Engage with students from around the world in fun, diverse discussions to challenge global perspective (Students from 140 countries have participated in People to People Leadership Summits), Create a foundation for lifelong success and effective leadership during a 7 Habits of Highly Effective Teens® workshop.

They will discover personal leadership style and use this knowledge to map their path to college and a career, conferences with relevant professional speakers, small-group workshops and visits to significant local venues can help the Coplins and Prince form a new perspective on the importance of good leadership.

"What we are most excited about is to gain an edge in the college admissions process and learn proven college application strategies, Communicate with our peers and strengthen our interpersonal skills through teambuilding activities that are challenging and fun. We are looking forward to familiarize with the culture of Boston and walk the historic Freedom Trail" said Miranda, Rafael and Christiaan.

People to People Leadership Summits are held in prestigious venues around the country and provide students a chance to explore the various aspects of leadership in specific contexts. Participants also gain insights to guide their educational and professional careers, and benefit from a strong focus on college admissions. Through workshops, presentations, excursions, and discussions, Leadership Ambassadors attain a clear advantage as they pursue their selected fields of interest. Students will have the opportunity to meet with admissions officers and gain valuable advice for navigating the college application process.

The programs offer students a unique blend of specialized educational, leadership, and cultural exposure as well as itineraries filled with the highlights of the hosting communities. Students enjoy a unique chance to enhance their self-confidence, as well as experience life-changing growth in personal responsibility, global leadership, and cultural diversity.
